

| Groups | Formation Tops | Wellbore History                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|--------|----------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| N/A    | N/A            | GENERAL Well 1/9-6 SR is a re-entry of well 1/9-6 S on the north-west flank of the Tommeliten Gamma structure in the Feda Graben in the southern North Sea. Well 1/9-6 S was suspended in December 1984 as a possible producer for the Tommeliten Gamma. The objective of the re-entry was plugging. OPERATIONS AND RESULTS Well 1/9-6 S was re-entered with the semi-submersible installation Ross Rig on 6 April 1991. The well was plugged and permanently abandoned on 20 April 1991. TESTING No drill stem test was performed. |

LITHOSTRATIGRAPHY & HISTORY FOR WELL: 1/9-6 SR